

Addiction & Recovery Training Pathways

For The Episcopal Church and communities of faith, from churchwide leadership to every congregation

Three tiers, each complete in itself. Together they move a diocese from awareness to action: equipping leaders to respond well, and placing trained Recovery Allies in every congregation.

1 TIER 1 • AWARENESS Called to Respond™ Briefings & Presentations 45 minutes to 2 hours Online or in person

Leadership Briefings (TEC)

For bishops, diocesan staff, and Standing, Search, and Transition Committees

- Hidden in Plain Sight, for Canons and diocesan senior staff
- Navigating Leadership, for bishop search and transition
- What General Convention has already asked of dioceses

Offered churchwide with the Presiding Bishop's Office of Leadership Development, or for a single diocese

Community Presentations

For conferences, coalitions, and community gatherings

- Healing Together
Understanding addiction, recovery, and the role of faith communities
- Where Faith Meets Recovery Capital
The critical role of the faith community in recovery
- Healing Happens in Community
The church as a partner across every season of life
- Faith to Help Families Affected by Substance Use
Catalyzing change in the African American community
- Strengthening Communities for Compassionate Recovery
An orientation to Faith Responders™

Tailored to each audience; new presentations join this track

2 TIER 2 • FOR CONGREGATIONS

Faith Responders™
Recovery Ally Training for Faith Communities

4 hours plus optional modules • for clergy, lay leaders, and congregations

Participants sign the Faith Responders™ Pledge and become Recovery Allies who know how to listen, observe, validate, and engage, with ongoing access to the Participant Resource Library.

3 TIER 3 • TO MULTIPLY

Facilitator Certification

For those who will teach Faith Responders™ in their own diocese: a Facilitator Intensive, co-facilitation, and an observed training, then licensed delivery.

ALONGSIDE EVERY TIER

Sam Shoemaker Center for Clergy Wellness & Renewal: consultation, comprehensive assessment, recovery monitoring, and resources for bodies conducting episcopal elections.
